

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Public Interest Oversight Board (PIOB)

Board Member

The Monitoring Group Call for Applications

This document is issued by the Monitoring Group (MG) which is responsible for the overall governance of the international audit, assurance, ethics, and independence standard-setting system, including the Public Interest Oversight Board (“PIOB”) which is accountable to the MG. Based on the MG Charter, the MG has responsibility for the selection and appointment of board members of the PIOB.

The selection process utilizes the PIOB skills matrix that draws upon leadership, expertise, and membership from a broad range of backgrounds and experiences. The MG endeavors to balance the nominee’s abilities and professional qualifications with the needs of the PIOB, such that the PIOB has the appropriate balance of knowledge, skills, and experience for it to discharge its public interest, oversight, and nominations roles and responsibilities independently and effectively.

Call for Applications: Board Member of the Public Interest Oversight Board

Executive Summary

The Call for Applications: Board Member of the Public Interest Oversight Board (“PIOB”) is an official notice for the general public. It outlines the requirements and job description of a PIOB Member and invites highly qualified individuals to apply for up to five (5) vacancies on the PIOB Board, for an initial term of up to three (3) years, commencing on or before January 1, 2027.

The PIOB is an independent oversight body that provides oversight to the standard-setting process to ensure that international audit, assurance, ethics, and independence standards are responsive to the public interest. The PIOB also manages appointments to the SSBs and the Stakeholder Advisory Council (“SAC”) to ensure a multi-stakeholder composition.

The PIOB is a non-profit foundation established in Spain, consisting of a Board of Trustees and a Technical Committee, the latter being tasked with oversight of, and nominations to, the SSBs and other governance responsibilities relating to the International Foundation for Ethics and Audit (IFEA) which houses the IAASB and IESBA. The Technical Committee has up to ten (10) objective and diverse members, known as PIOB Members, including the Chair, committed to the public interest. All PIOB Members are members of the Technical Committee, while only certain PIOB members are selected to serve on the Board of Trustees having additional responsibilities and obligations¹.

PIOB Members are drawn from a diverse variety of stakeholders, with experience in the preparation, audit, oversight, delivery and use of financial and non-financial information, and with the ability to assess whether the work of the SSBs is responsive to the public interest and undertaken in accordance with the Public Interest Framework and to assist in ensuring that the standard-setting system has appropriate financial resources to carry out its standard-setting responsibilities in a timely, and high-quality manner.

A PIOB Member is a non-executive, compensated position, with expected total time commitment (excluding travel) of approximately 300-800 hours per year. The PIOB typically holds four meetings per year, with typically three meetings in-person in Madrid and one held virtually. Also, members are allocated oversight responsibilities of the SSBs, which partly comprise of in-person observations of meetings of these two standard-setting boards and of the SSBs Stakeholder Advisory Council (SAC).

Candidates should ideally:

- Have experience or a strong understanding of the principles of oversight and working in a public interest environment, and knowledge about the role that international audit, assurance, ethics, and independence standards play in the functioning of the world's capital markets, the services or activities which the standards address and the environments and manner in which they are delivered.

- Possess effective communication skills and the ability to work collaboratively in an international setting alongside board members from a variety of nationalities and backgrounds.
- Have strong connectivity to their home and regional markets, and should be able to effectively engage in stakeholder outreach, including fundraising activities, to publicly advocate for the work of the PIOB, as well as for the work and standards of the SSBs as independent standard-setters of high-quality global audit, assurance, ethics and independence standards developed in the public interest. In addition, engagement in stakeholder outreach will include initiatives to develop and maintain a stable long-term funding model for the international audit, assurance, ethics, and independence standard-setting system.

The MG is seeking candidates who have held senior level or leadership positions, including considerable international experience, and are highly respected both within and outside their professional sphere in their region and globally. Candidates should also have an understanding of, and be sensitive to, the various challenges associated with the adoption and application of high-quality global audit, assurance, ethics, and independence standards, and to current issues such as the impact of new technologies, and changes in investors' and markets' expectations. Candidates should demonstrate a firm commitment to serving the public interest, to the work of the PIOB, and to oversight of, and nominations to, the SSBs as high-quality global standard-setters.

- English proficiency (both written and oral) is essential, and only individuals who possess the highest integrity will be considered.
- In this call for applications, the MG particularly seeks candidates with experience in stakeholder outreach and engagement, including fundraising, from a wide range of relevant backgrounds, including, but not limited to: audit, preparers and users of financial and non-financial information, including institutional investors and analysts; individuals from the corporate governance community; academics; and those working in the regulatory and government community. In particular, for at least one of the five open positions, the MG is seeking an individual with recent and significant senior auditing experience in the private sector. Candidates must not be currently in public practice as auditors or working for a firm that performs audits, but might be practicing in another area of auditing or accounting.
- In an effort to enhance the geographic diversity of the PIOB, applications are particularly welcome from North America, Oceania, Latin America and the Caribbean.
- Candidates with other relevant backgrounds and experience that potentially complement and enrich the current composition of the PIOB membership are encouraged.
- Current employees of organizations represented on the Monitoring Group are not eligible for consideration.

Monitoring Group

The MG, is a group of international financial institutions and regulatory bodies committed to advancing the public interest in areas related to international audit standard setting and audit quality. According to its charter, the MG has the responsibility to monitor the execution by the PIOB of its mandate and to make recommendations to the PIOB.

In a current and combined effort, the PIOB and IFEA are actively considering options to simplify and improve the international standard-setting system, including a goal of attracting more stable and diverse long-term funding sources. The PIOB and IFEA will present the MG with options for consideration and recommendation for action, focused on short-term improvements within the PIOB's mandate. However, longer-term recommendations will be considered which may eventually result in reforms to the functions of the PIOB.

The MG published its most recent recommendations, Strengthening the International Audit and Ethics Standard-Setting System, in July 2020. The objectives of the 2020 MG Recommendations are the implementation of a more independent standard-setting system that encourages participation from all stakeholders in the standard-setting process so that it is more responsive to the public interest and an accelerated pace of change in the development of timely, high-quality audit, assurance, ethics, and independence standards.

Under the recommendations, the PIOB continues to provide independent oversight of the standard-setting process to ensure that international audit, assurance, ethics, and independence standards are responsive to the public interest and are developed in accordance with the Public Interest Framework. The PIOB oversight is undertaken throughout the standard-setting development cycle and evaluates how the SSBs considered and balanced input from stakeholders.

The PIOB's governance responsibilities include the nomination and appointment process for the SSBs' board members, protecting the SSBs from undue influence, such as commercial, political, and economic influence, in the public interest, and overseeing the ethics and conduct criteria for the PIOB, the SSBs members and staff.

Overview of the Position

ROLE SPECIFICATION

PIOB

Under the leadership of the PIOB Chair, the PIOB Technical Committee is responsible for making appointments to and providing independent oversight of the SSBs. Under its current mandate, the PIOB's responsibilities include:

- Oversight of the work of the SSBs to ensure that standards are responsive to the public interest, including that they are developed in accordance with the Public Interest Framework and that standard-setting activities follow appropriate due process throughout the standard-setting development cycle;
- Assessing the effectiveness of the SSBs and their respective chairs;
- The nomination and appointment process for board members to the SSBs and members of the SAC;
- Assessing the SSBs' delivery against their strategy and work plan;
- Supporting a multi-stakeholder funding of the standard-setting system; and
- Protecting the SSBs from undue influence, such as commercial, political, and economic influence.

The PIOB is accountable to the MG, which monitors the effectiveness of the PIOB in achieving its mandate in the public interest.

PIOB Member

In order to contribute towards the PIOB's mission, and collective effectiveness of the PIOB, individual PIOB Members are expected to (among others):

- Serve as a member of the PIOB Technical Committee² and may be asked to voluntarily serve as a Trustee of the PIOB Foundation³ having additional responsibilities and obligations⁴. Trustees have responsibilities to govern and represent the Foundation and approve its management plan. Those responsibilities include financial and operational oversight of the Foundation and ensuring the Foundation remains financially sound for the future.

² The PIOB Technical Committee is a committee of the Board of Trustees of the PIOB Foundation, appointed to carry out the oversight and nominations activities of the PIOB Foundation.

³ The Public Interest Oversight Board Foundation (PIOB Foundation) is a Foundation established and registered in Madrid in terms of Spanish Law. It is the legal entity that houses the PIOB and governed by its Board of Trustees. PIOB Members may be asked to serve as a member of the Board of Trustees of the PIOB Foundation.

- Actively participate in and contribute during PIOB meetings;
- Observe meetings of the SSBs and the SAC and ensure that appropriate due process has been followed and public interest issues have been appropriately considered and addressed;
- Work collaboratively with the SSBs in exercising PIOB oversight, which includes, among others, understanding the input received from stakeholders and how decisions were made by the SSBs in applying the Public Interest Framework;
- In collaboration with the SSBs and consistent with the PIOB's oversight role, engage in outreach and fundraising activities with key global stakeholders;
- Contribute to activities that enable the PIOB to provide its views in a timely manner throughout the standard-setting process;
- Publicly advocate for the work of the PIOB in overseeing the SSBs, as well as for the work and standards of the SSBs, as independent standard-setters of high-quality global audit, ethics, and independence standards developed in the public interest; and
- Actively participate in engagement activities with stakeholders related to initiatives to develop and maintain a stable long-term funding model for the international audit, assurance, ethics, and independence standard-setting system.

TIME COMMITMENT

PIOB Members contribute primarily through active participation in meetings of the PIOB, observation of the SSB meetings, SAC meetings, outreach activities, and meetings with the MG. Therefore, it is important that candidates carefully consider whether they are able to allocate the time needed for meaningful contribution. The members of the PIOB will regularly engage with the SSBs throughout the full development of each standard to ensure its public interest responsiveness. PIOB Members likewise will engage with stakeholders, particularly in their region, to assist in the identification of public interest issues, encouraging them to actively participate in the standards development process by making their views known to the SSBs, fundraising activities in support of the standard-setting system, and other outreach.

⁴ Role and responsibilities of the Trustees are outlined in the PIOB Foundation Bylaws (https://ipiob.org/timeline/2003_PIOB-By-Laws.pdf)

PIOB Members should be able to meet the time commitment which includes, but is not limited to:

Active participation in up to four (4) PIOB meetings each year, generally three (3) days in duration. Typically three (3) PIOB meetings are held in Madrid, Spain, and typically one (1) meeting is held virtually;

Observation of meetings as part of the oversight of the SSBs, and their advisory committee. Typically, a PIOB Member's responsibility will range from four (4) to six (6) meetings annually, and each meeting of the SSBs' is typically four (4) to five (5) days in length;

Active participation in outreach meetings and engagement with stakeholders, particularly in their region. Outreach meetings and engagement with stakeholders range from the standards development process to initiatives to develop a stable long-term funding model for the international audit and ethics standard-setting system.

Total time commitment (excluding travel) is approximately 300 to 800 hours per year, with 300 to 400 hours representing a typical annual workload.

STIPEND

PIOB Members are entitled to receive fixed annual stipends of EUR 20,625, and variable remuneration of EUR 825 per day of attendance at assigned public interest meetings. Stipend and variable remuneration information are subject to change in the future, and further information will be provided to PIOB Board Members upon appointment.

Reasonable travel expenses incurred in performing duties on behalf of the PIOB will be reimbursed.

TERM LIMIT

A PIOB Member is typically appointed for an initial term of up to three (3) years.

High-performing PIOB Members are eligible to be considered for re-appointment for a second and final term of service. Re-appointment is dependent on the PIOB's particular needs and whether any new candidates may be more suitable in the context of the PIOB's priorities and composition when evaluated against the skills matrix.

SELECTION CRITERIA

The MG reviews applications with the objective of selecting the most suitable candidates for the available positions.

As outlined in the MG Recommendations, the MG utilizes the PIOB skills matrix that considers leadership, expertise, and membership from a broad range of backgrounds and experiences. Candidates will be evaluated based on a wide range of skills, including the following:

- A public interest mindset
- Independence of thought and an innovative mindset.
- Understanding of the services which the standards address, including the nature of the services, users, and the environment and manner in which they are delivered
- Understanding of the role and scope of remit of the standard-setting boards and of different participants in the ecosystem
- Critical reasoning and thinking: ability to place information in context, think through problems and consider unintended consequences, and find globally valid solutions that meet the strategic objectives
- Cooperative and collaborative, including active listening, collegiality, and awareness of cultural differences; and experienced in achieving common positions
- Experience or understanding of the basic principles of working in a public interest environment
- Experience or understanding of the principles of oversight
- Business leadership, strategic thinking, and understanding of principles-based approach enabling objectives to be achieved in differing circumstances
- International experience, including knowledge of differing cultural, economic, political, or commercial conditions and their implications in the public and private capital markets of varying sizes

To complement the existing skills of PIOB Members, the MG seeks candidates that have knowledge and skills in the following:

- Understanding of the role and use of the IAASB and the IESBA standards, including the impact on users of financial and non-financial information and related audit or assurance reports
- Experience in stakeholder outreach and engagement, including fundraising

The MG also will consider how the candidates' background complements that of the existing PIOB Members.

Additionally, English language proficiency is essential for this role. Proficiency in other languages will be an asset. Candidates also should have strong connectivity to their home and regional markets, and be able to effectively engage in stakeholder outreach to publicly advocate for the work of the PIOB in overseeing the IAASB and the IESBA as independent standard-setters of high-quality global audit, assurance, ethics, and independence standards developed in the public interest. In addition, engagement in stakeholder outreach will include initiatives to identify enhancements to the standard-setting structure, its operational and governance processes, and to develop and maintain a stable long-term funding model for the international audit and ethics standard-setting system.

The MG endeavors to balance the nominee's abilities and professional qualifications with the needs of the PIOB, such that the PIOB has the appropriate balance of knowledge, skills, expertise, experience and background for it to discharge its public interest and oversight role and responsibilities independently and effectively.
